† Novena In Honor Of St. Benedict (March) †

Whilst standing in the oratory, Benedict the beloved of God, his soul strengthened by the Body and Blood of the Lord, his failing limbs upheld in the arms of his disciples, his hands lifted up to Heaven, with words of prayer on his lips, he breathed forth his soul which was seen ascending to Heaven along a way richly tapestried and aglow with countless lights.

V. Thou hast appeared glorious in the sight of the Lord. R. Wherefore the Lord hath surrounded thee with splendor.

Let us pray

O God, Who hast enriched the precious death of our holy Father Benedict, with so many and such great favors, grant us, we now beseech Thee, that he whose memory we now honor, may protect us in the hour of death from all the snares of our enemies. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
