*O Lord, uphold us and

Palm Sunday

We must arrive at a precise explanation of the difference between the externalisms of the law, and the salvation that comes through faith and love in Christ and the good works born of that faith and love. Salvation simply is not in the fulfillment of the twenty-hundred differently interpreted rules of correct traditional religious ceremonial and personal moral and penitential conduct.

Salvation is not in the letter of the law – especially in the various home-spun traditionalist opinions that have sprouted up concerning the law! Salvation is not in the meticulous performance and extravagant renditions of liturgical ceremony! Salvation is not in a book! Salvation is not in the scrupulous following out of carefully selected – preferred – traditional religious devotions and prayers! Salvation is not in the superficial and capricious observance of outward acts of virtue and mortification! Salvation is not in continuous argument and debate seeking final proofs to counteract the calamitous damages brought about by the Second Vatican Council, (all of which signify NOTHING and have all failed miserably in their effort to “restore” anything that pertaining to the damaged conditions now prevalent in the Church of Jesus Christ!) Salvation is not in the countless un-Catholic and improperly “authenticated” presentations of the true and accurate “Catholic” orthodoxy!

Salvation comes through faith in Jesus Christ and Jesus Christ Crucified. The Church of Jesus Christ is at the service of the love of God. Everything is founded upon love! Everything in the Church of Jesus Christ must be inspired by the force of love! Even repentance, if it excludes the love of God it is infernal!

By honest and determined acts of sincere love, the soul of man lives a supernatural life, as intensely as is possible for the glory of God and for the soul’s own salvation. Without the force of love behind them, all well intended works, all taken together do not accomplish for the life of the eternal soul what one act of pure love does for that soul. All activities and attitudes of mind to the contrary notwithstanding.
