Weekly Bulletin #133

It is not the good we do that matters in God's eyes so much as how we do it. It is not what we effect that He regards, but what we are! An action of the most trivial kind (AS FAR AS HUMAN ESTIMATION GOES) may be wonderfully pleasing and beautiful and exalted in God's eyes, IF IT PROCEEDS FROM A SOUL IN WHICH CHARITY IS GREAT, AND GRACE ABUNDANT. A series of such acts extending over years, and all of them utterly devoid of external importance, but done in a spirit of love for God and devotedness to Him, imparts to the soul that power which enables it to face the most arduous labours in God's service and to undergo great sufferings in His cause. TO ACCOMPLISH GREAT THINGS, WE MUST BE GREAT! And all greatness in the supernatural order consists, FOR US, in the development of sanctifying grace in our souls. Worldly achievement and temporal accomplishments, after all is said and done, are nothing more than feathers in the wind. The pebbles that man fights so to gather unto himself, are the property of this world - they will not follow him into heaven - - they not follow him EVEN into hell! No outstanding achievements are necessary for the salvation of our souls. The most humble tasks, if done with obedience and through charity - for the love of God - contribute effectively to the growth of one's soul. In this ALONE is greatness!!!

1. NEXT SUNDAY IS THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING -*-*- The Patronal Feast of the Monastery. Please pray for God's special blessing to rest on the entire monastic effort that we are all engaged in at this time. The job is monumental, and the total reason behind the job is the preservation of Catholic way of life which is being strangled by the ecumenical way of life. Whoever works for the cause of Jesus Christ and His Church is automatically faced with a MONUMENTAL TASK!
