Christ's chastity was a condemnation of the world's theory of happiness. His chastity was something more than is ordinarily understood by the term. Happiness and pleasure are synonymous for the world, as are pain and unhappiness. It is true that if the Fall had not taken place, there would be no such thing as pain, and all the creatures would minister pleasure to men. But now things are otherwise. It often happens that pleasant things, far from being a necessary element of man's happiness, bring about his ruin. On the other, hand, the things that prove painful to his sensitive nature, instead of being the cause of unhappiness, can become, in the hands of Divine Providence, the instrument of our highest good. Our selection of things must not be determined by their pleasure-giving capacity, but by their aptitude to promote the salvation of our souls. All softness, ease, luxury - - all that administers sensual gratification - - was rigidly excluded from Christ's life. At the outset of His life on earth, monotonous toil was his lot; afterwards, intense apostolic labour, much journeying on foot, daily contradictions, and homelessness suffering was His portion. He chose it because the world regards suffering as the GREAT EVIL, and the world is wrong. In the world pleasures center on the gratification of the senses and the imagination. The world regards these as the good, but the world is wrong!!!

1. Monday, November 13 is the Feast of Benedictine All Saints.
Tuesday, November 14 is the Solemn Commemoration of Benedictine All Souls.
2. The Calendars for 1990 have been ordered.
3. Confessions are heard before all Masses on Sunday.
4. Please pray for all the sick and shut-ins in our Chapels, especially remembering the welfare of our Brother, Al Sachs.
5. The number of members who attend Holy Mass at each of our Chapels, should be a matter of personal concern to each one already in attendance. Therefore, each and every one of us should work to bring at least one new person to the Altar of the Holy Sacrifice. We must remain persuaded that our attraction to the Holy Sacrifice should come from the fact that the Mass is our source of salvation, and not so much that it is a thing of beauty. This is the argument we must use in our effort to attract others.
6. Each year at this time, we update our address files. Any change in address or new addresses should be reported. Please place these in the collection basket.
