Weekly Bulletin # 160

Have you ever noticed how the holiest people you have come across always seem to be the happiest? One would think that the enclosed nuns in their convents and cloistered monks in their monasteries, with no possessions and no pleasures such as movies and parties and sports events, might be lonely and sad, with a down look on life. Sometimes you do find one of the other who is sad, for whatever reason, but most of them seem to be laughing whenever you visit them. Then on the other side of it you would think that men and women who have lots of money and lovely houses would be proclaiming their happiness all day long. They take in all the pleasures: movies, trips to everywhere, parties all the time, engagements and engagements all the time, etc. etc. these are the sad and lonely ones. Look into their eyes, do you find joy in them?? It is a known fact that the people who kill themselves are mostly the rich and the worldly, not the poor and the religious. The filling of life with enjoyment only empties life of happiness. Collecting more and more money or possessions is like drinking salt water: the more you drink, the more you have got to have! Our Lord has said: "the peace which I give is not the peace which the world gives, for my peace no man can take from you."

THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

1. Today is the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Friday is the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul.
2. Sunday, July 1 is the First Sunday of July. Therefore, there will be no 9:30 A.M. Mass at St. Pius Chapel and no 12:30 P.M. Mass at St. Francis Chapel.
3. New comers into our Chapels are often concerned about our manners in Church, and about the way we dress when we attend Holy Mass. The attached presentation of all such is a reminder to us so that we will be able to give them the proper and charitable guidance when they come to visit us. We should quickly offer them a copy of the "Little Missal" so that they can follow along during the Mass. After Mass we should attempt to explain, as best we can, what has happened, and that we are not a group of antiquarian people who cling to the "old way" because it looks better, but a group of strong people who insist on believing that the Mass is where bread and wine are changed into Body and Blood, and not where people go to socialize, and do fun things.
