Weekly Bulletin # 163

When Jesus gives Himself to us in the Holy Sacrament of Holy Eucharist, we possess Him as holy Simeon did when he held Him as an infant in his arms; as Magdalen did when she carressed and kissed His feet; as St. John did when he reposed on His Heart. Jesus has unweariedly followed us from the Crib to Calvary; from Calvary to the Tabernacle; from the Tabernacle to the hands of the priest; from the hands of the priest to our heart.

We do receive Christ as we do every time we go to Holy Communion, but how do we receive him.??? We should receive Him with faith, because we believe Him to be there present even as He was present in the crib when the Wise Men saw and adored Him. We should believe as St. Peter did when he cried our, "Truly, Thou art the Son of God!" We should approach Him with a living faith, with a deep sense of our unworthiness, but, no less, with confidence and unfaltering trust, a trust without limit and reservation. "The measure of confidence is without measure," sayt St. Francis de Sales. Though we may have squandered the powers of our soul, perverted the safeguards of our heart, sinned without limit, our Blessed Lord and Savior is ready to receive us in all of our sinfulness, if only we return with sorrow and love.
