WEEKLY BULLETIN # 164

Every man who is imbued by the Gospel is-at the same time-a good son, a good wife, a good father, a good cook, a good boss, a good priest, a good policeman, a good king. He loves his brethren and he is just and generous and courageous. He is God-fearing, honest, pure and temperate. In all things he is obedient to lawful, upright and correct authority - - - and because of the Gospel he will come to know, love, and serve God - which is nothing more or less than sanctity, and sanctity is the ONLY reason why he was brought into existence.
