Weekly Bulletin #169

If anyone ever did, Christ understood the weakness and helplessness of Man. He knew only too well that men on earth would languish and starve if He did not give nourishment to them. He foresaw the happiness of faithful souls who would find their delight in His personal possession, in His embrace - - in the reception of His Flesh and Blood. He saw that many would hunger after this food, thirst for this drink. And would not many souls, in the possession of the living fount of love, be induced to respond to His love, and thus find their salvation and happiness? In all sadness He also foresaw the countless men on earth that would reject this wonderful gift; he foresaw that they would not only reject the gift, but actually desecrate it; he foresaw His own consecrated priests deny He Flesh and Blood as they are doing today in huge numbers. In spite of it all, Jesus understood that His continual personal presence would be to man's utmost advantage, even if just for a remnant few. For this reason Christ instituted the most wonderful Sacrament of the Blessed Eucharist - He gave us the sublime Mystery of His love!!!

"We have become victims in our public life of a mass agnosticism unknown anywhere in history, and worst of all, this spirit or relativism has paralyze the Christian Churches themselves, whose bewildered and diminishing flocks huddle in the fenceless folds while wolves in shepherd's clothing explain from the pulpit that the essence of tradition is change." (a quotation)
