. . . My!! My!! . . . Then who are we to believe????????????????"

Many people today, in this age of Religious and Moral confusion, have stood up to "preach" and "teach" and to "WRITE!!!" This is very true in the ranks of Traditionalist people, and in all of this there has been an abundance of exaggeration and distortion of the true and actual CATHOLIC traditional fact and reality. These free-lance writers and teachers - - whether lay or clerical - - have caused suspicion, distrust and confusion amongst the good-willed people in their particular sphere of influence. In too many cases the authenticity of these instructors simply cannot be established, and NO VALID INFORMATION CAN BE GAINED FROM PEOPLE WHOSE AUTHENTICITY IS SO FAR FROM BEING ESTABLISHED. Furthermore, if one looks closely, he will detect that some of the so-called "traditions" which are being peddled so meticulously are hardly more than a twenty year old vintage. Even if some of the traditions that are being promoted be valid, but have long since come into dis-use, they should now be considered as innovations, and in the order of importance, totally inferior to the importance of our main purpose: the PRESERVATION OF THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS! Besides, local custom, or the custom of the land, does have some degree of acceptability, and should be respected by those who live there.

When reading ANY ARTICLE concerning traditional matters, or concerning ANY interpretation of Catholic traditional moral or dogmatic or liturgical issues, IF THE WORDS: "IN MY OPINION" DO NOT APPEAR SOME PLACE IN THE ARTICLE - THE ARTICLE SHOULD BE DESTROYED AND FORGOTTEN. Many articles are being written and many lectures given on matters of serious traditionalist concern - by both clerical and lay "teachers" whose credentials as teachers are totally questionable.

Our prayers and good wishes go to our Mrs. Julia Jernigan (Our Lady of Lourdes Chapel) who was Baptized into our Holy Religion on Sunday - June 2.
