10. Be ALERTED:

Next Sunday - the last Sunday of October, we go off of DAY LIGHT SAVING TIME.

In the Fall we "fall back". Turn clocks back one hour.
before going to bed on Saturday.

We know that when anything is the will of God there must be the grace to fulfill it. The grace is THERE; but we remain FREE to take it or leave it. If He had said, 'this is the Will of God, your martyrdom,' we would know that the grace to fulfill that particular vocation could be counted upon. We would still be left with our free will. We could still run away from martyrdom, though we would be very great fools to do so. God, however, does not call many to martyrdom but He does call many - - in fact ALL - - to perfection. We are very great fools when we run away from perfection. But the sad part of it is that this is what most of us do! Sad for two reasons:

- (1) because God is not given the praise which the sanctity of His servants could give Him;
- (2) because these servants of His would be far far happier if they were holier.
