(V Sunday after Epiphany)

(Additional Mass # 3)

November 10, 1991 - - - Green

How little do we think of the dead! Their bones lie entombed in all our towns and villages. The lands they have cultivated, the houses they have built, the works of their hands, are always before our eyes. We travel the same roads, walk the same paths, sleep in the same beds and rooms, eat at the same tables, mow the same lawns, sit in the same chairs, and we seldom remember that those who once occupied these places are now gone! - - ALAS - - for ever! Strange that the fleeting cares of life should so soon rush in and fill the breasts of us all, to the exclusion of those once so near and dear!!!

Our dead! Our beloved dead! To be loved even more strongly because they might well be near to God. How consoling the doctrine that assures us we can pray for them! Are they in suffering??? We know not; but love bids us pray for them, and pray for them ever, that the Hand of the Lord be not heavily upon them. Pray for your dead! Never forget your dead! They loved you then-- they love you now -- perhaps more than before, but they may very well be in grave need, and it might well be that they are at this moment pleading for your prayers!!! Pray for your dead, that eternal rest may come to them!!! and that perpetual light may shine upon them.

1. A VERY STRONG WELCOME TO FATHER JOHN QUINN WHO IS HERE THIS WEEK END. AS WE ALL KNOW, FATHER IS NEAR AND DEAR TO US AND HE COMES HERE FROM THE CHAPEL OF ST. PIUS V IN LAKE ZURICK, ILL.

Father Leonard has gone to St. Pius V Chapel in order to conduct the annual FORTY HOURS DEVOTIONS there.

It seems that this exchange has become an annual affair.

2. Due to certain unforeseen circumstances, Brother Emmanuel Skala will not be able to teach Catechism Class next week. Therefore, there WILL BE NO CATECHISM CLASS at St. Francis Chapel next Sunday.

3. Please pray for the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels, especially remembering Al Sachs.

4. Please order 1992 Calendars now @ $4.00 per Calendar. Contact:
Laurelyn Niebuhr in Birmingham
Mrs. Paul Roy in Montgomery
Father Leonard in Cullman.
