

God, and God alone, can produce that for which we pray! However, we should become aware of a certain relevant fact. God, in His infinite Mercy greatly desires to help us, but He has made His help - - He has made His action - - DEPENDENT on our action (NOT JUST OUR PRAYER)!! We are the cause, in a sense, of the fulfillment of our own request. Therefore, even though all things come from God, the final outcome of things depends in great measure upon OUR ACTIONS: our own powers, our own inclination, our own persuasions, our own attitudes, our own virtue, our own dispositions, OUR OWN EFFORT!!!! Most Traditionalist people seem to think that prayer is ALL that is necessary to bring about the restoration that their hearts long for. Yet, in all of their dealings, their attitudes, their dispositions, their EFFORTS, their ACTION toward every other Traditionalist person, or group of persons, there are to be found quarrels, disputes, calumnies, descensions, animosities, deceits, jealousies, maledictions, denunciations, excommunications, and all such like. How sad! How very, very sad! The prayers of such people, no matter how long and hard they pray, are reduced to nothing more than exercises in futility!! Their prayers will never come to realize the help of God - - they simply cannot count upon God's blessing, and in the final end they will surely come to disappointment and frustration.
