ESPECIALLY during these very Holy Days, let ur pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels, especially remembering our dear Brother, Al Sachs, Let us also remember the Family of Al Sachs, who actually share so much in his suffering.

As to the matter of the Easter Duty, this cannot be taken lightly, nor is anyone free to place private interpretation on its observance. It is a clear law of the Church, and has to be obeyed, under pain of serious Confessions are heard before Masses on Sunday.

Confessions can be arranged, should there be difficulty of time or distance.

Do not underestimate the value of the Most Holy Rosary. Say it every day. 6.

GOOD FRIDAY IS A DAY OF SOLEMN FAST AND ABSTINENCE - - UNDER PAIN OF MORTAI

- The obligation is serious. Through the generosity of a good Benefactor, many copies of the little
- book: "Prayers and Heavenly Promises" were sent to the Monastery. At the request of the Benefactor, these are to be distributed amongst the people of the Chapels. Take one and USE IT.

THURSDAY IS HOLY THURSDAY! FRIDAY IS GOOD FRIDAY SATURDAY IS HOLY SATURDAY!

Need it be said that every Catholic worthy of the NAME-Catholic-should observe these days with the greatest degree of reverence and prayer. The T.V. should be turned off COMPLETELY. The atmosphere in the house should be of recollection with as much mortification as is reasonable. A type of reverential silence should be maintained by all, and as much time as can be possible should be spent in the reading of the PASSION OF OUR BLESSED LORD. The Holy Rosary should be said (the Sorrowful Mysteries) on more than one occasion. Time should be spent in the Meditation of JUST WHAT THE PASSION AND DEATH OF OUR LORD REALLY SIGNIFIES. If the circumstances prevent you from attending the holiness of these days in a Church, then, make your home a sanctuary. NOTHING - - absolutely - - NOTHING should keep you from the Love of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ!!!
