FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER - - SUNDAY Weekly Bulletin # 232
April 26, 1992 - - - White

Without the knowledge of God a man is like one who walks in the dark and stumbles at every step; he has no end or aim in life, no consolation in misfortune, and no hope in death. He cannot have any solid or lasting happiness, or any true contentment. Without a knowledge of God a well-ordered life is impossible. Just as an untilled field produces no good fruit, so a man who has not the knowledge of God can produce no good works. It may be said further, that no true and lasting good can be accomplished in any field of endeavor except through God, and through the love of God solely for the sake of loving Him. In view of these immutable truths, can the vast and highly organized philanthropies and charities of today, based NOT ON THE LOVE OF GOD, but rather on love or gain and the furtherance of a multitude of political schemes and aims, have any real benefit for suffering mankind??? Can the enslavement and degradation of multitudes by making a myriad of horrible vices available to all, have any result but destruction???????

1. Please pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels, especially remembering our dear Brother, Al Sachs.
