

6. MARCH 21, is the Feast of OUR MOST FATHER BENEDICT. This year the Feast falls on a Lenten Sunday, which is a privileged day. Therefore, the Feast must be transferred to tomorrow - Monday.

This is a very great Feast for Benedictines. We are Benedictines, who are painfully struggling to preserve and protect a tradition and a life of great value:

THE BENEDICTINE MONASTIC LIFE

7. Please pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels - Especially remembering: Al Sachs (and those of his family who have to care for him).

JUDGE THE FRUIT, OH LORD!

JUDGE THE FRUIT!

LOOK TO THE GOOD FRUIT, LORD,

AND NOURISH THE TREES

WHOSE FRUIT IT IS!

8. MASSES FOR THE WEEK:

SUNDAY: 6:00 A.M. For Prayer Promises and Benefactors
9:30 A.M. For the People of the Chapels
12:30 P.M. For the Poor Souls in Purgatory
MONDAY: FEAST OF ST. BENEDICT:
For the Community of Christ the King
TUESDAY: Dec. David Mruz
WEDNESDAY: Dec. Minnie Veigl
THURSDAY: Dec. Father John Capesius, O.S.B. (2)
FRIDAY: Dec. Robert Brisbois
SATURDAY: Dec. Florine Brisbois

9. Wednesday, March 24 is the FEast of St. Gabriel, the Archangel who announced the Mystery of the Incarnation to the young girl - MARY.
10. Thursday, March 25 is the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

These feasts are important, and we should spend time during these days in reading and meditating on just what it is all about, with a seriousness strong enough to combat the present day indifference --and even opposition-- to this all important event.

I can't believe anyone who says the doesn't know whats going on. He knows but does nothing*

The priesthood is a gift so great that one can never give it back to God; one shouldn't even be tempted to do so.
