THE LOVELY FEAST OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

THE FEAST OF THE BREAD OF ANGELS

If we love the Blessed Sacrament, and if we delight to spend our time in adoration of this tremendous mystery of love, we cannot help finding out more and more about the charity of Christ. We cannot help gaining an intimate and personal knowledge of Jesus Who is hidden under the SACRAMENTAL VEILS. But in proportion as we grow in our knowledge and love for Him, we will necessarily grow in the knowledge of His Will for us. We will come to understand more and more how seriously He means us to take His "New Commandment" that we love one another as He has loved us.

Indeed, if we fail to take this commandment seriously and if we find our devotional life concentrated upon a selfish desire for pious feelings that enclose us within ourselves and narrow our heart, making us insensible to others or even contemptuous of them, we can be sure that our devotion is an illusion. We do not know Christ because we do not keep His Word. For He only manifests Himself to those who do His Will. And He wills to come to us in this Sacrament of His love not only in order to console us as individuals, but in order that we may give Him our hearts and let Him dwell in them, that through us He may love our brothers with our own love.

1. Friday is the feast of THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

If you really wish peace, protection, holiness of life, and CHARITY, you must make your dwelling place the MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS. No place else can such be found in this world. All the riches, all the power, all the glory acquired by the labors performed by man, can give what the Sacred Heart can give, and just for the asking.

Morning Mass in the Monastery 6:00 A.M.

2. Today is the Feast of St. Anthony of Padua. A Truly Great Saint. Let not this day pass without a strong expression of love for the wonderful St. Anthony.
3. Please pray for the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels, especially remembering our Brother Al Sachs, and remember his good wife Cornelia and his family who must care for him.
4. Confessions are heard before Masses on Sunday.

*Oh Sacrament Most Holy
Oh Sacrament Divine
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment Thine.*
