To Whom Shall We Go?

Only one life to live — that is the sum total of our earthly existence. Only one life to live! And what a short and fluctuating existence it is! At best our existence is but a shadow that flits across a short expanse in the ocean of time.

We can understand how throughout the ages, blind, groping humanity held and swayed by fear and doubt, has yearned with a deep and sighing longing for something fast and firm, something positive and definite, something unchangeable and unending — but dissatisfied, disillusioned, distracted men cry out the question "To Whom Shall We Go?"

If you have problems of body and soul, are tossed about on the raging seas of doubt and distrust; if the deep darkness of sin and wrong has engulfed you life, if you are sinking in the conflict of life, overcome by weakness and helplessness crying for deliverance and strength there is a Power to raise you up and to give you courage of victory.

"Thou hast the words of eternal life, and we believe and are sure that Thou art that Christ, the Son of the Living God," these immortal words of St. Peter must also be our confident confession of faith.
