

5. Reports have it that there may be danger to us all in the next few days, as a result of the comet that is hurling through space. Whatever the prophetic significance of this phenomenon may be, let us protect ourselves by prayer, prayer, and more prayer. Let us use our time in humble prayer than in useless speculation.

Through artifice, cunning, prevarication, Modernism offers an emasculate Catholicism, which is no Catholicism, to the Catholic world. In wrecking the deposit of Catholic Faith, it (Modernism) has "dissolved" the Incarnation; in "dissolving" the Incarnation it has taken away the Infant Jesus and we know not where they have laid Him; in taking away the King of all infants, Catholics find themselves despoiled of their spiritual armory, with a vulgarized sense of contemplation, and a terrible void in their souls which, in the ages of faith, was filled with the theological, moral, and evangelical virtues. In such a weakened, depleted, and deplorable condition, Catholics have become an integral part of a world at war with God; a world given over, in abject servility, to the prince of this world, to the powers and principalities, and to the unimaginable abominations of consummate evil in the highest places within the Catholic Church leadership. To send a temporal army into battle unarmed against a mighty enemy would be considered quite criminal; yet, this is exactly what Modernism has done to Roman Catholicism!!!
