Weekly Bulletin # 325

The Catholic Church is the divine charter and organ of religion in the world. Since it comes from God, it is universal, invariable, independent, supreme, and authoritative for all men and nations - - and no force either from within or from without the Church can change this fact. No matter how small the number of followers, the charter cannot be changed - it shall remain in effect until the end of time. No force or power shall ever be able to annihilate it from off the face of the earth. It may be in hiding, it may be in the catacombs, but it is nevertheless in existence, and shall remain so forever. The vocation of the faithful Catholic, no matter his circumstance, no matter the forces arrayed against him, no matter his physical condition, is, to cause Jesus Christ to live anew in his heart, soul, and body. The Catholic belongs to God by creation, regeneration, public profession made before Heaven and earth, and by means of the most intimate union possible between God and His created likeness, the divine union which takes place through the reception of the Incarnate God in Holy Communion. We are His and His alone by divine pledge, having offered ourselves as hosts and victims to be living sacrifices all the days of our lives. Saint Paul beautifully affirms the greatness of our vocation: "I beseech you, brethren, by the mercy of God, offer yourselves a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God."
