Weekly Bulletin #328

IT SHALL BE THE SAME FOR ALL. Before God all nations shall be gathered. The differences of age, race, condition, country, birth, and temperament, shall be of no consequence. Each shall be called to account: alone, standing before the Creator of the world, the Source of unchanging Truth, the Author of Sacred Scripture, which, with Sacred Tradition, constitutes the inviolable Law of all times and conditions, upon which our eternal verdict will be based. All mental interpretations and personal definitions concerning the application of God's Justice will every one be brought to one single interpretation and act of Justice: GOD'S!!! In the presence of the terrible Judge the whole of one's life will be made known: from the earliest years to one's last breath all shall be encompassed; no word, deed, desire, action, or thought will there be omitted; the most shocking and exact history of our mind, of our heart, of our imagination, shall be revealed. So many shameful desires; so many wasted moments; so many evil intentions; so many wicked delusions; so many impurities; so much seeking after applause and flattery; so much chasing after perishable things; so much debilitating passion; so poverty-stricken our prayers; so encompassing our weakness, our cowardice, our Judas-like behaviour in the presence of the Sacred Host; so many penances deferred; so many Masses missed; so many Rosaries unsaid; SO LITTLE REPARATION MADE: SO MUCH UNCHARITY; so often an accomplice to scandal; so little truth-telling; so unmanly our defense of the Sacred Name, the only Name in Heaven and on earth whereby salvation is possible, so unlike a true "Child of Mary" our lives have been lived; so much inconsequence; so many talents squandered; - - - thus a life passes, in the blink of an eye, twenty, forty, sixty, eighty years, and then, as a thief in the night death comes unawares!!!
