

4. Today is the SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI. Do not forget your ACTS OF REPARATION to the Most Blessed Eucharist.

When you read holy books, seek spiritual consolation and profit and the love of God, not curiosity, not superfluous understanding and knowledge, not neatness and elegance of words; for the Kingdom of God is not in elegance of speech but in holiness of life. Be not troubled if many of the good things you hear or read slip out of your memory. Your chief profit consists, not in committing the word of doctrine to memory, but rather that the effects of the doctrine and words remain in you, namely: that because of the doctrine you achieve internal purity and a ready mind to fulfill the commandments of God.

May the special blessing of Almighty God be upon all the Fathers on this day - that they may have the Grace and the Courage to be STOUT HEARTED MEN, and also men WHOSE WILL IS GOOD, mindful that being the representatives of Christ in the Family, and that THEY take the place of Christ in the Family, they move and act in a way proper and befitting such true representatives of Christ. Mindful, too, that with authority goes an equal amount of responsibility.

SCRIPTURE'S WARNING IS ONLY TOO CLEAR WHEN IT WARNS THAT WHATEVER LACK OF PROFIT THE MASTER OF THE HOUSE SHALL FIND IN THE SHEEP, WILL BE LAID ON THE BLAME OF THE SHEPHERD.

LORD, GRANT US MONKS! LORD, GRANT US HOLY MONKS! LORD, GRANT US MANY HOLY MONKS!
