What sanctity asks of us goes deep in, and we need great FAITH and courage to respond. It is like letting down a bucket into a deep and dark well. The thought may rather scare us, but we must remember that there is living water at the bottom of it. 'If any man thirst, says our Lord, 'let him come to Me and drink.' If it is the darkness that frightens us - - - (the saints certainly go on and on about the darkness of it; every saint has experienced the "dark night".) - - - we must remember that He is the light of the world. Perseverance is required, because hauling up the bucket is a slow and tiring job, but we must remember that we are not left to our own strength alone. In fact, according to St. Paul the weaker we are the more we can count on the strength of God. 'Power is made perfect,; he says, 'in infirmity.' So, trusting in the help of God, we simply go on pulling. Perseverance means being faithful--full of faith. He that perseveres to the end, he shall be sanctified.
