ADVENT

The King of kings took for His throne a lowly manger and for His palace a stable bare, that men might know that His kingdom is not of this world or for the worldly but is to be established in the hearts and minds of those humble enough to submit to the dominion of a tiny child and those simple enough to discern in this abject poverty the majesty of God!

Them with all the tender love of our hearts and minds and souls and beings until death shall take us from this land.*
