THE NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Weekly Bulletin # 465

July 20, 1997 - - - Green

Mass: Sunday; Gl; Or: Sun.; A Cunctis (of Saints); Church; A Domo! Cr.
Pref. Trinity.

The MANNER of penance must be intelligent, planned, and directed by someone who has the experience and the ability to direct. Penance cannot be haphazard and borne along on the crest of the wave - it cannot be in imitation of what someone else is doing! Penance as well as prayer is brought into the order of charity. Since it is the Holy Spirit who orders charity in us, it must be the Holy Spirit who puts order into our prayer and our penance. Only where there is order can prayer be anything more than a culture, and penance anything more than an experiment. Though the order must be intelligent and planned, it does not on that account have to be scientific. The natural must be given supernatural inspiration and direction, or the prayer is no more than a mental exercise (and it is a well known fact that traditional Roman Catholics lean heavily on the intellectual aspects of spirituality) and the penance no more than toughness.

Since order involves restraint, there must be nothing eccentric in the performance of penance. Without this restraint, penance becomes exhibitionism, advertisement. Without this restraint, there is a new excess which will have to be mortified. Without this restraint, whatever publicity is given to the idea of penance is discredited: PENANCE THEATRICALY PREACHED AND PRACTISED LAYS OPEN THE ENTIRE IDEAL TO RIDICULE.

1. The heat of the Summer is with us. Please remember the dress code proper to anyone attending the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and which is expected in this church. The church is air conditioned, and we hope sufficiently comfortable. Our youth must be shown reverence to God, and clothing is an excellent manifestation of reverence. Reverence is so lacking in the new order of catholicism.
2. Please pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels, especially rememberinf Al Sachs.
3. Confessions are heard before Masses on Sunday.
4. Tuesday, July 22, 1997 is the Feast of the Great Saint Mary Magdalen. Thursday, July 25, 1997 is the Feast of St. James the Apostle. Friday, July 26, 1997 is the Feast of SS. Joachim and Anne, the Parents of our Blessed Virgin Mother.
