

6. Confessions are heard before Masses on Sunday. Everyone should look to the Sacrament of Penance as indeed a matter of consequence. The Sacrament of Penance should be made use of if one intends to receive the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist worthily.
7. So much has been said, indeed, so much has been done to degrade the Most Blessed Eucharist, that many so-called catholic priests and people no longer BELIEVE in what the Most Blessed Eucharist really is. To these unfortunate people, the Eucharist is nothing more than a mere SYMBOL. The Eucharist is the actual and true Body and Blood of Jesus Christ! In that one statement lies the sum and substance of Catholicism. If the "celebrating" priest does not believe in the Eucharist, there is NO CONSECRATION, and it matters not at all what the attending people believe. The faith of the people does not bring about consecration, in spite of the disbelief of the "celebrating" priest. To worship a piece of bread is idolatry. Furthermore, true Catholics believe that it is the Consecrated Host that is the Body of Christ - - - the Body of Christ IS NOT THE ASSEMBLAGE OF PEOPLE PRESENT!!!
