ADVENT

Rejoice

Her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged; for the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel.

Isaiah

THE MASS - - my dear people - - THE MASS must be the center of traditionalist concern! Traditionalist private preference and bickering will stop ONLY if traditionalist priests and people turn full circle back to the MASS!

"Come to Mass! Come, children, come to Mass, and bring your merry hearts with you. Come, you that are young and happy, and rejoice before the Lord. Come, you that are old and weary, and tell your loneliness to God. Come, you that are sorely tempted, and ask the help of heaven. Come, you that have sinned, and weep between the porch and the altar. Come, you that are bereaved, and pour out your tears here. Come, you that are sick, or anxious, or unhappy, and complain to God. Come you that are prosperous and successful, and give thanks. Christ will sympathize with you. He will rejoice with you, and He will mourn with you. He will gather up your prayers. He will join to them His own almighty supplications, and that concert of prayer shall enter heaven, louder than the music of angelic choirs, sweeter than the voice of those who sing the song of Moses and the Lamb, more piercing than the cry of the living creatures who rest not day or night, and more powerful and prevailing than the intercession of the Blessed Virgin and all the saints of paradise together. The Mass a formalism?! The Mass an unmeaning service?! Why, it is the most beautiful, the most spiritual, the most sublime, the most satisfying worship which the Heart of Man can even conceive." (Father Francis Baker)
