

the Rosary recited at Catholic Funerals any more? And the Most Blessed Eucharist? The Blessed Eucharist, Which we recalled with reverence only last Thursday - just exactly, what is the Catholic professional - bottom line - attitude toward the Eucharist today - on the part of the people - and ON THE PART OF PRIESTS? Everyone knows the length of the list of Catholic disregards. Disregards that once were part and parcel of our Holy and Catholic Religion - but now all GONE WITH THE WIND!

Our age suffers from a sad and deadly sickness - coldness towards God and all that is supernatural! Our age suffers from the cause of this deadly sickness - it suffers from a church that has ostracized the supernatural and almost all that is sacred! In the absence of That which is supernatural, is it any wonder that modern man - modern catholic man - rushes senselessly hither and thither until death overtakes him? Is it any wonder that the tyranny of sin rules the hearts and minds of today's man, even though he wrestles to free himself from his trials and disappointments and adversities, but helplessly falls headlong into despair? Man falls into despair because there is no one to console him; there is no one to lead him and carry him to the Place of refreshment; there is no one to wipe away the tears of his sorrow and sin; there is no one that he can turn to in safety! But there are those, even yet, who will insist that this presentation is an example of pure negativism; those who continue to insist that the only way to conquer our present problems is to look and see and feel positive about them.

The world was made for prayer. Not until we, as a race of people return to a wholesome fear of God - nourished by a solid foundation of genuine prayer, will any of us be able to breath again!!

1. Friday, June 19, 1998 is the Great Feast of THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS. This is but another wonderful occasion and one that requires prayer and many acts of solid adoration and reparation.
2. Please pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels especially remembering Al Sachs.
3. Confessions before Masses on Sunday.
4. CORRECTION OF DEFECTIVE RELIGIOUS THINKING: It is not necessary, neither is it required for one to be present for Mass in its entirety for one to receive Holy Communion. One may be quite late in arriving for Mass and still receive Holy Communion. As a matter of fact, one does not have to attend Mass at all and receive Holy Communion. Avoid private opinion in matters of observance!
