

HAPPY FATHERS' DAY

TODAY we pray most specially for our Fathers. We pray that the Good God be upon them. We pray that the Good God will give each of them the special gifts that they need in order to do their work around the Family Unit in the way intended by God. We pray that the Good God will help them during these days of great turmoil, especially in their Church, and inspire them to teach their children the true and proper elements of their Holy Religion. We pray that the God God will give them the Gifts of Humility, Obedience, Understanding, Charity, Wisdom, Piety, and the great gift of the ABILITY to transmit these wonderful Gifts to the the members of their Families. May God Bless them and Keep Them!

1. Please pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels, especially remembering Al Sachs.
2. Confessions are heard before Masses on Sunday.

OVER AND OVER AND OVER AGAIN - we emphasize and we caution against the bane of the entire Traditional Roman Catholic cause: DEFECTIVE RELIGIOUS THINKING! The absence of a central authority (which was once our great strength and security) has given rise to private interpretation in the Catholic Church. Private interpretation throws open the doors and uninformed opinion and misdirected research attack every inch of the solid FOUNDATION OF TRUE CATHOLIC BELIEF AND CATHOLIC LIFE. We complain that it was blind obedience to established authority that gave birth to the present disarray in the novus ordo system of Catholicism. Should we not also complain about the insidious protectionism of self-appointed guards who have made it their business to keep the definition of our ancestral Faith intact? but who, in certain areas, have allowed personal religious likes and personal preferences to bring about the formation of a very manufactured Catholicism which they like to call "Traditional Catholicism"! Such ones are not giving effective protection at all. And for all the proving - has it made any of us holier? Besides, no valid information can be gained from people (and priests alike) whose authenticity is far from established. Termite like, such ones are eating away at the already much weakened timbers that remain to hold up what is left of true Catholic Belief and Life. As Roman Catholics we must adhere to what is accurate and correct Traditional Roman Catholicism. Personal preference must be discarded as tarnishing the very thing we struggle to preserve. We must not give in to the illusion that we are secure in our Traditional Faith, and that we will succeed by force of will and energy in maintaining the fundamental points of our Holy Religion. Youngsters have no way of knowing what has been lost to our Faith. They think they know, but they do not! Only the older ones of us, those of us who were there BEFORE the wall came tumbling down, can speak with any degree of accuracy about what once was the norm in the Catholic Church. Youngsters have only the picture books to go to for information. The enemy lies in wait for the death of the old heads! Only the old heads really know what has been taken away, and it might well be the fate of the younger heads to suffer the loss of the rest of it! Then there will be nothing! That thought is enough to freeze the blood that flows within us. Then there will be nothing left but our objections.

The disarray in many of our traditionalist chapels is so well known and should be very alarming, and bewildering. Look out for that day when God, in His displeasure, will Himself come and take away from us all the good priests that remain in His Church! Look out for that day when the terrible prophecy will be fulfilled that the Mass will be no more on the face of the earth! No where is it promised that the Mass will be with us until the end of time.

Let us not be so concerned about the social conditions of our times, or the financial conditions, or the food supply conditions, or the climatical conditions, or the possible chemical poisoning conditions, or the conspiratorial conditions that we usually spend so much time talking about and meeting about. Not any of these conditions, individually or collectively, are able to bar the way to our salvation. Our ONLY concern must be centered around our Holy Faith. As good and true Catholic People we must strive to have genuineness of heart and mind in a humble practice of our Holy Faith. ONLY that will bring us to the salvation we all desire. AND WE MUST PRAY WITHOUT CEASING! Nothing else will be of any help! (LET HIM HEAR WHO HAS EARS TO HEAR!)
