6. Saturday is the Celebration of The Independence of the United States of America. This is a great and important day in the History of our Land. Let us every one be proud of our HomeLand, and let us stand up for it. There are those who go about saying things that, historically are not true, and are , therefore, tearing down the respect that is proper for one's Homeland. Weak though it may be, we must not forget that America is the Land of our Birth, and the Land that many - indeed - have made it the Land of their Home.
