Weekly Bulletin #531

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary

1. Today is the Feast of the Evangelist, St. Luke. Pray to him and ask him to help bring an end to the sundry writings of Holy Scripture.
2. Next Saturday, October 24, is the Feast of the Archangel - St. Raphael.
3. Next Sunday is the FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING - the patronal Feast of our Monastery. It goes without saying that this is a very great Feast.
4. ALSO - - NEXT SUNDAY - the end of Daylight Saving Time.
REMEMBER - in the Fall you turn the clock BACK

Once again, traditionalist Catholics demonstrate forgetfulness of the real reason and center of concern of Traditional Roman Catholicism - - THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS - - and they continue to wander off into fields that give no service to the original problem. At the present time, much emphasis is given to teaching concerning Baptism, and in this area (as in other areas) the untheologians - full of the information that comes from - - out of context - - computers and the unreliable internet - are disturbing the consciences of good people. Such individuals deny the threefold Baptism (Water, Blood and Desire). This denial is tantamount to heresy and is actually an old one, going back to the 13th. Century when it was opposed by Hugh of St. Cher.

The threefold Baptism has been the official and constant teaching of the Roman Catholic Church. In order to give value to their teaching concerning Baptism, and to give shaky credence to it, the untheologians go so far as to say that St. Thomas Aquinas was a heretic (by some he has been labeled the "Father of Heretics"), but St. Thomas was chosen as the official theologian of the Roman Catholic Church. Now, if St. Thomas was a heretic, and if he was chosen to be the official theological teacher of the Roman Catholic Church, then it has to follow that nothing - absolutely nothing - can be listed as trustworthy doctrine in the Roman Catholic Church since the time of the "heretic" Thomas! - - - except, of course, what the self-proclaimed, untaught, but computer smart theologians tell us is correct Roman Catholic Doctrine. It has been called to your attention before - - GOD IS VISITING HIS PEOPLE WITH CONFUSION OF THOUGHT!!!

6. A thousand - thousand thanks to those who helped with the reception of Father John Schreurs. It was very successful.
We are especially grateful to Bishop Robert McKenna, O.P. for his constant benefactions to our Monastery. May God grant him long life and wonderful blessings.
