

1. TODAY - hopefully all will go well - and wll will enjoy a good and wholesome CHAPEL PICNIC on our Abbey Grounds after the 10:00 A.M. Mass. May this be a source of happiness and joy to all - may God be with you every one and all. Of course, everyone understands that the Monks and Nuns cannot participate.
2. Today's Narrative is very important. A STRONG suggestion is that everyone read it carefully and slowly - at least three times. It is important and very vital to today's unrest!
3. Please pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels, especially remembering Al Sachs and Rich Burkehart (Our Lady's of Lourdes Chapel). Please remember - also - Malachi Martin who has suffered a serious injury, and the Mother of our Carol Girardi who is very sick.
4. Thursday, July 22, 1999 is the Feast of the ever great St. Mary Magdalen - one whom we all must pray to for help and guidance. Mary Magdalen was a great sinner, but her love and her determination to abandon her life of sin, obtained for her a very high place in the estimation of her Lord.
5. Last week's Gospel contained the following quotation: "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. By their fruits you will know them." Be CAREFUL of the literature you receive and read. Because the literature is marked "TRADITIONAL ROMAN CATHOLICISM" does not keep it from being the fruit of ravenous wolves. With computerized information at our finger-tips, many false arguments can be conjured up to the detriment of truth. Some of these arguments are very cleverly clothed in "sheep's clothing"! Any religion that relies on vicious argument to justify its existence - IS POOR RELIGION!
The trouble with too many of us is that:

W E MEDITATE P O L I T I C S - - -
RATHER THAN T H E H O L Y G H O S T.

* *

- ç. MASSES FOR THE WEEK: Abbot Leonard's Schedule Only)
- | | |
|------------|--------------------------------------|
| SUNDAY: | For the People of the Chapels |
| MONDAY: | Special Int. Agnes Schwarzbauer |
| TUESDAY: | Special Int. Theresa Svetz |
| WEDNESDAY: | Special Int. Thomas McDormott Family |
| THURSDAY: | Special Int. Gloria Chmelowski |
| FRIDAY: | For the Poor Souls |
| SATURDAY: | Thksg. Christ the King Abbey |

AND PERFECT MAN!. We are unhappy because we are not perfect, and we are not perfect because we have not that fullness of existence for which we crave and for which we have the capacity - and money - - - ALL THE MONEY - - - cannot purchase that fullness. Perfection means fullness of life, and fullness of life means complete happiness. Every natural thing - every living thing - reaches out after the possession and enjoyment of the fullest measure of existence of which it is capable. We, by our Baptism, are made participants in A HIGHER than created nature. We, in a wonderful manner, are made sharers in a DIVINE FORM OF EXISTENCE, and our hunger remains unsatisfied until union with that Divine form is achieved. All the restless, feverish strivings after something we know not what, that we experience constantly within ourselves, are provoked by the deep-seated fundamental realization of the emptiness of our being, its profound limitations, its terribly unfilled capacities, and its own utter insufficiency to itself. No matter how hard we try; no matter how much money we spend; no matter how many trips we take to exotic places - the answer always remain the same: no rest! St. Augustine said: My soul shall remain restless, until it rests in Thee, Oh. Lord!