quite over. Even the ones whose opinion remains at variance with the accepted Teaching of the Church, must bow their heads (at least those whose will is good!) Because of the presence of the Holy Ghost in the Church, and because the guidance of the Holy Ghost is there to guide those WHOSE WILL IS GOOD, the Church is said to be indefectible - which means that in its teaching of Faith and Morals which fall under its jurisdiction and authority, the Church cannot make a mistake - - it remains without defect, and its teaching remains permanent and lasting. This quality of the Church is extremely important and necessary, because of the TRUSTING PEOPLE in its care. The people must know that they are moving about in a safe harbor. The People must know that the evil winds of untruth; that the tidal wave of the work of "false prophets" cannot reach them! Woe to them who disturb the delicate fabric of trust.

Today, everything is under attack. The hippies taught us how to attack everything. As a consequence, mentally honest people suffer much, and wonder much. Such people reach out for the truth. Such people are starved for the truth, and because of that they grab at anything remotely resembling the truth.

"A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. Therefore by their fruits, you will know them."
