1. Please pray for the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels..
 2. DO NOT FORGET - - - DO NOT OVERLOOK - - - the need for regular Confession. It is not a matter of personal opinion - the matter of overlooking the necessity of regular Confession of our Sins. The matter is serious and must be given serious consideration.
 3. With the coming of the Holy Season of Advent, if we have not already done so, let us give proper attention to our MONASTIC HOME ALTARS. The Home Altar is not merely a matter to be used as an instructional device for our children. In these days of religious destitution it is imperative that we dedicate a spot (a very important spot in the house) to be HOLY. A spot so important and so HOLY, that its holiness will be strong enough to pervade our entire household. It should be strong enough to control moral climate of everybody in the household. It should be strong enough to let the presence of God felt throughout the house and in the attitudes of all who live there.
 4. DON'T FORGET THE ADVENT WREATH - - Spend time in its preparation - make it a thing of beauty, while at the same time, make it a thing of wonderful holiness and edification to all. The Advent Wreath is not just for the little children - it is for the grown-ups, too - - even where there are no little children. Christmas without Advent is a lifeless occasion. Advent brings all the wonders of Christmas Day to life, and gives sense to the all of it - even the figurines that go along with Christmas.
