

SEPTUAGESIMA

1. St. Blaise Blessing of Throats today at all Masses. The Blessing will be given in Birmingham, at St. Pius V Chapel - NEXT SUNDAY.
2. The usual and regular Lenten Instructions and List of Lenten Reading will be distributed at Mass in Montgomery - Our Lady of Lourdes Chapel - today. They will be distributed next Sunday at our Other Chapels.
3. Wednesday, February 14, is St. Valentine Day. If prudence, good taste and plain ole common sense are exercised on that day, one need have no scrupulous and needless apprehensions about enjoying the usual fun things that go with HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY. For the sake of our INNOCENT little children, let us keep the sparkle of innocent fantasy alive and well, lest perhaps the black smog of the corruption of evil (which is already in the minds of our dear little children everywhere!) enter their beautiful minds, and innocent imaginations. It simply takes more work on the part of the grown ups to keep beautiful the fun things the older ones of us enjoyed - once upon a time.
4. Saturday, February 10, 2001 is the Feast Day of Our Most Holy Mother Scholastica, the Mother of our Sisters of St. Joseph's Monastery. On that day, please give the Sisters and our Convent some of your very best prayers.
5. Please pray for the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels.

A shaky interior spiritual life is quite capable of causing one to place a defective interpretation on all things, even the legitimate and noble customs of life, as well the solidly beautiful and intelligent Catholic way of living.
