

Alleluia ✦ Easter Time ✦ Alleluia

1. Wednesday, April 25, 2001, is the Feast of St. Mark. It is the day of the "Greater Litanies". Procession with the chanting of the Litany of the Saints. There is no connection between the occasion of the "Greater Litanies" and the Feast of St. Mark. The Greater Litany has, in tradition been said throughout the Church to ward off plagues. In rural districts, a special intention came to the foreground, namely to invoke God's Blessing of the Harvest: "Vouchsafe to give and preserve the fruits of the earth". This invocation is part of the Litany and it is sung as the procession moves about and through the fields. The Mass of the day emphasizes the power of confident, persistent prayer to our Heavenly Father.
2. Please pray for all the Sick and Shut-Ins of our Chapels. Please pray, also, for all the many prayer requests we receive from people all over the world.
