GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep, whereas the hireling, who is no shepherd, and does not claim the sheep as his own, abandons the sheep and takes to flight as soon as he sees the wolf coming, and so the wolf harries the sheep and scatters them. The hireling, then, takes to flight because he is only a hireling, no concern over the sheep. I shepherd; my known to just as I my know him.

because he has am the good sheep are me and know me; am known to

Father, and And for these sheep I am laying down my life. I have other sheep too, which do not belong to this fold; I must bring them in too; they will listen to my voice; so there will be one fold, and one shepherd.

( New Testament translated by Msgr. Ronald Knox )
