

Today is the Feast of Pentecost and the Anniversary of the founding of the Holy Catholic Church and Religion. Our prayers to the Holy Ghost must be that He will inspire our every thought to be in conformity with the true and right intention of God, and that He will correct any private and defective opinion that we may have about any point of our Holy Religion. Defective Faith – regardless of its degree of seriousness – annuls the operation of grace in our souls.

Let us pray for our soldiers on
the battlefield.

Let us pray for
all soldiers on
the battlefield.

A Thought To Remember ...

Our holy and true Faith is our most priceless possession. It has been firmly established by the lawful authority empowered by the Holy Spirit of God to do so. No person, nor any group of persons, has the authority or the power or the right to tamper with even the slightest fragment of our Faith held by our Holy and apostolic religion. Woe to him who attempts to do so!
